2. The following information was obtained in regard to the commissaries:

On 14 October 1954, a new commissary (19) with officer Belyayev (fnu) as chief was established in Merseburg. The new commissary mainly made its purchases in Leipzig. Merseburg military post had previously been supplied by Commissary (14) Komar which now was only in charge of Koethen and Wittenberg military posts. Major Molchanov (fnu) was the chief of the store in Neuruppin which was assigned to Commissary (1) Voichenkov. Brandenburg-Industriehafen was supplied by Commissary (9) Mashkin and Brandenburg-Briest by Commissary (11) Eromenko. The former commissary, on 23 October, purchased, for the Brandenburg-Industriehafen military post, 300 collar patches for air force personnel.

25X1

300 men had newly arrived. On 22 October, 100 pairs of infantry epaulets for former air force personnel were purchased by the Magazine III (6b) in Werder/Glindow.
